PLEASE PRAY FOR THE SICK AND HOUSEBOUND OF OUR PARISH, especially: Gillian Hamley, Kenneth Lee, Yvonne Williams, Angela Dale, and Roger Porter.

A WARM WELCOME THIS EVEVING to Bishop Peter who chose to begin the Visitation of the Milton Keynes Pastoral Area with our Parish.

NO PUBLIC CONFESSION SLOT THIS EVENING. The Sacrament of Reconciliation will instead be available next Saturday from 5:30pm. Obviously if you want to make a confession this evening, please feel free to approach Bishop Peter or Fr Anton.

PARISH NOVENA TO THE HOLY SPIRIT: It is not possible this year to have our usual daily Novena in the church because of the ongoing organ repairs. Instead, parishioners are encouraged this year to make the Novena privately at home. To this end, Novena Prayer Cards will be distributed at Mass this evening. Please take an extra one if you know someone housebound who might like to join with us in prayer too. The nine days of the Novena (30th May to 7th June) are about our personal preparation for the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost.

PRAYING IN THE SPIRIT is the name of a short ecumenical service of reflection here this Wednesday at 7:30pm. It has been inspired by the practice of our public annual parish novena. Although the novena will be prayed at home in private this year, this service will be an opportunity to come together once in the novena period and pray not just with the Parish but with all our local Christian brothers and sisters.

CHRISTIAN AID SUCCESS: Thanks to all the helpers and donors, led by the three churches, more this year was raised than ever before. The total was £639.42, of which almost £350 was from the street collections and the remainder from the two lunches.

CALL TO MALAWI: On Saturday, 29th June, at 7pm in the St Laurence Room, Vron Corben will be talking about her recent visit, with discussion about the opportunity for the parish to help the region she visited in a continuing practical way. This will be followed by a simple supper and drinks. Tickets will be on sale from next weekend, and are £2 each, children free. Donations are also welcome on the day.
